

Alasia

Alta Langa DOCG Riserva 2018

Color

Straw yellow with golden hints.

Aroma

Creamy, bready notes balanced by fresh fruit. Subtle citrus aromas and yeasty, biscuity notes.

Palate

On the palate more leesy characters balanced by ripe orchard fruits. Medium-bodied with a creamy texture and a touch of fresh acidity on the finish.

Grape variety

Pinot Nero

Area

Hills in the south of the province of Asti, Piemonte. North and North-East aspects at altitudes between 250 and 400 m. Limestone-clay soil.

Vineyards

Piemonte low Guyot trellis. Planting density 4,000 - 4,500 vines/ha.

Food match

From the aperitif to the whole meal

Awards

2016 Vintage
92 points - Decanter Magazine

2013 Vintage
Bronze Medal - The Global Sparkling Masters 2021

